The Hon'ble Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal in its common orders 2nd read above, quashed the impugned orders and has also directed that it is always open for the competent authority to punish the applicants by conducting the enquiry strictly in accordance with Rules 20 & 21 of CCA Rules, 1991, as the charges relate to misappropriation of Government funds, if proved.

8. In the letter 13th read above, the Inquiring Authority submitted his report and held that the charge is proved to the extent of that the charged officers derelicted their duty by not examining the challan properly, by not noticing that the interpolation was made in the challan and by not enquiring the delinquent, who is a private person, about the interpolation resulting in loss of revenue to the Government.

(P.T.O)

10. The Government after careful examination of the matter, had observed that interpolation was not done by the Charged employees. Apparently this was done by the authorized agent and his employee, that it may not be possible to detect the fraud on the challan, only reconciliation would bring out the difference which was not done later. Hence the charged employees cannot be held responsible and therefore decided to let off from the charges framed against them.
